Submitted by: Tom Roys, AHS Athletic Director

Date: December 8, 2008

Background Information:

The Tri-State Regional High School Tournament is the largest in the northwest. This will give our athletes a chance to compete against the best wrestlers from five different states, including Montana, Oregon, Idaho, Washington, and Utah. Furthermore, it will give our wrestlers an opportunity to be spotted by many college coaches from schools around the West Coast to increase their chances to wrestle at the college level someday. Lastly, it also provides our wrestlers with a chance to travel to a different state that will enhance their learning and inter-scholastic athletic experience.

Administrative Consideration:

To have the opportunity to represent Arlington School District and the community at the Tri-State Wrestling Invitational is an honor. The cost of the trip will be covered in full by Arlington Wrestling Club Booster account and parents.

Superintendent's Recommendation:

That the Board approves the AHS Wrestlers to attend the Tri-State Wrestling Invitational on December 18-21, 2008 in Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.
